

Round Table Knights

The Order of the Round Table is established by Arthur in 514. The only true criterion to join is Arthur's Favor. However, to put it in rule terms, qualifications to be invited to join the round table are:

- At least 8,000 Glory
- Be Chivalrous
- Act to support King Arthur

The first knights of the round table include 100 knights "donated" by King Leodegrance, plus fifty more appointed by Arthur in 514.
